

September-October 2007

BIG RIVER™

FEATURES

- 22 Remembering Prairie du Chien's Fourth Ward
A man remembers his childhood on St. Feriote Island, in a neighborhood that no longer exists.
By Jeff Lessard
- 24 Turkey Vultures
Like eagles and hawks, these soaring birds ride thermals over the river bluffs.
By Pamela Eyden
- 28 Backwater Tours
Small eco-tours can get you out to places you can't see from overlooks or bigger boats.
By Pamela Eyden and Trudy Balcom
- 34 Treasures Along the River — Fountain City Houses
If you look around, you'll find several intriguing historic houses that reflect river history.
By Kate Halverson
- 39 Grilling Up Good Times at the Trempealeau Hotel
A favorite river restaurant has upscaled its menu.
By Pamela Eyden
- 41 Bogus Creek Cafe
You can dine alfresco on a tree-shaded patio in this Stockholm, Wis., restaurant.
By Molly McGuire
- 42 Picnic in the Park in Guttenberg
Pick up a lunch, kick back and head to Guttenberg, Iowa's, mile-long riverside park.
By Becky Sisco

DEPARTMENTS

- 5 From the Riverbank
Thank you to two good friends.
By Reggie McLeod
- 7 River News
Bridge collapses, casinos move, pelicans nest.
- 21 Know Your River
Barge and recreational boat traffic is down.
By Reggie McLeod
- 60 Big River Places: Maiden Rock
Walk out for an extraordinary view, but watch for snakes, drop-offs and poison ivy.
By Reggie McLeod
-
- 45 City Page Ads
Discover the delights of Upper Mississippi communities.
- 58 Advertiser Index
Where did I see that ad...?

On the cover: Voyaging up Big Slough near Lansing, Iowa. (Eric Dykman)